MARCUS SMITH DIES IN CAPITAL

Served Arizona in Congress
Thirty-four Years

Ex-Senator Found Dead in Room at Hotel

Eulogy Given by Members of Upper House

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, April 7.—Former United States Senator Marcus Smith of Arizona died here today. He was 72 years of age.
Death resulted from heart disease, the former Senator being found dead in his hotel room late today.
After serving in Congress as Territorial Delegate from Arizona for eight terms, beginning in 1887, Mr. Smith was elected to the Senate in 1912 after the admission of Arizona to Statehood and was re-elected to that body for the six-year term which ended in 1921. Since his retirement from the Senate he had held membership on the International Joint Commission and has resided here almost continuously.
Former Senator Smith was born near Cynthiana, Ky., and was admitted to the bar in that State before removing to Arizona in 1881. The death of Senator Smith was announced in the Senate by Senator Ashurst of Arizona, who made a brief memorial address recalling the former Senator's long service in the House and Senate.
Senator "Robinson" of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, and Senator Curtis of Kansas, acting Repubcan leader in the absence of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, joined in the testimonial.

WON STATEHOOD
Marcus Aurelius Smith was the man who framed the bill whereby Arizona was admitted into the Union. A national administration plan to link Arizona and New Mexico in this undertaking and enter the mass single State, was stoutly opposed by Mr. Smith, and he won his fight when the question was submitted to the voters of the two Territories.
Mr. Smith was one of the first two United States Senators to be elected from Arizona. This was in 1912. For eight terms previously he had served the Territory as a delegate in Congress. Identified for years with the politics of the Territory he had to make his earlier campaigns by stage coach for lack of better transportation.
Mr. Smith was born in Cynthiana, Ky., January 24, 1852, and was educated at Transylvania College, Lexington. After his admission to the bar he located at Tucson, Ariz., in 1881. During his long political career he was familiarly known as "Mark" Smith.
The year following his arrival he was elected prosecuting attorney at Tucson, and in 1887 he was elected to Congress. He was a successful Congressional candidate each recurring two years until the Territory became a State.
His fight for Arizona's Statehood was long drawn out and vigorously prosecuted. In each session of Congress in which he served he introduced his Statehood bill, and on several occasions succeeded in having his measure passed by the House of Representatives, only to have it rejected by the Senate. Due to his ability as a lawyer he was often called back from Washington to Arizona to appear in notable civil and criminal cases.
RECLAIMED LANDS
Mr. Smith's first tenure as a Senator was for the short term. In 1914 he was elected for the full term ending in 1921. Notable among his activities in Congress was his fight for the measures to reclaim arid lands. He took a big part in inaugurating the campaign to reclaim these lands for cultivation all over the Union, and assisted in drafting the first bill in Congress for the conduct of this work.

Because of his self-made prominence he was the target for much satire as well as commendation. He was said, however, to have had a great hold upon the people of his State, and to have served them with a singleness of purpose that made the State and its interests one of the big issues in Congress.
In the later years of his Congressional activity he eschewed many offers to appear in private practice in his home State, and confined himself to Congressional work. His health was precarious for a number of years.

Two Murders Laid to Score of Klansmen

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
JOHNSTOWN (Pa.) April 7.—Carrying concealed deadly weapons, murder and riot were charged made against twenty-four men said to be members of the Ku Klux Klan, by Dist. Atty. Weiner today before Alderman E. L. Levergood. The prisoners, arrested in connection with the fight between visiting Klansmen and townspeople of the village of Lilly Saturday night during which two Lilly men were killed will be given a preliminary hearing later.

REVOLT AIMS AT REUNITED CHINA

North and South Presidents
Will be Deposed

Strong Political Parties in Great Conspiracy

Sun Yat Sen to be Offered
Post of Railroads

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
VICTORIA (B. C.) April 7.—Two Chinese Presidents, Tsoo Kun, to whom recognition is accorded by foreign nations, and Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who is officially ignored by the powers as head of the South China Republic, will be deposed if success attends the latest military plot to gain control of the entire country, according to advisers received from the Orient on the Empire of Asia.
The revelation of the conspiracy is reported to have thrown all China into a state of confusion. It involves a reconciliation between two hitherto inveterate enemies, Gen. Chang Tsoo Lin and Wu Pei Fu, and a plan for a reunited country. Consummation of an alliance between the Tsuchus, or war lords of the three strongest political parties in China, is expected to be proclaimed soon.
The triple alliance is between the Tsuchus of the Southern Party at Canton, headed by Sun Yat Sen, the Constitutional Party at Peking, whose nominal chief is President Tsoo Kun, whose speech and action are controlled by strings in the hands of Gen. Wu Pei Fu; and the Manchurian Party at Mukden in the north, whose leader is Gen. Chang Tso Lin.
The aim of the alliance is to unite China under Gen. Tsoo Lin. Sun Yat Sen's military chief, as President, Gen. Chang Tso Lin Pei Fu as Premier of the House of Parliament. Peking is to be the seat of government.
President Tsoo Kun is to be relegated to political oblivion under the Tsuchus' plan. But in deference to Sun Yat Sen's influence and large following in Canton, the "stormy petrel" is to be offered the post of director of the National Railway Bureau. Thus he will be given a chance to carry out his grandiose scheme to construct a gigantic network of 20,000 miles of railway to cover the entire country.
President Tsoo Kun is considered too weak to be capable of serious opposition to the plot. President Sun Yat Sen, however, is of different mettle. The Tsuchus anticipate trouble from him. Should he refuse to accept the offer of the portfolio of railways, they plan to annihilate him throughout China as an enemy of peace and send a formal expedition against him.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
CHICAGO, April 7.—Edward Schneider, a footsore machinist, late last night found a place where children are not turned away, but not in Chicago.
With his 2-year-old, Edward, Jr., he had spent the day trudging throughout the city to find a flat within his means where the child, as well as his father and mother, would be welcome. He had stayed home in the evening while the mother took up the search.
In the meantime, a neighbor smelled gas and called the police. Three burners of the gas stove had been left open in a rocker, clasped in a farewell embrace, were the bodies of father and son.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
MONTEREY, April 7.—An inquest will be conducted at Salinas over the body of David Tarango, 43 years of age, laborer of Carmel, shot last Saturday. Martin Sota, 25, is held by the authorities.
According to August Englund, Carmel City marshal, he was summoned to the Sota home by complaints that Tarango had threatened to "carve" his brother-in-law, Sota. The latter's wife and three children were escorted to a neighbor's house after Englund had broken the handcuffs, smashed the door of the Sota home and had been shot by Sota.
Tarango is said to have served a term in the State prison at San Quentin for assault with a knife.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

BOSTON, April 7.—A friend of a friend who played false—and Mrs. Virginia Dellelo, Hyde Park, mother of six children, scrimped and scraped for three weary months to make restitution of $1000 and keep out of jail.

Now the money is all paid and Mrs. Dellelo, thankful, is rejoicing. With her are rejoicing Esther, Joseph, Ellinor and Julia, Little Frank and James don't know what it is all about, but they are rejoicing because their big brother and sisters appear to have a reason. Frank is not quite 2 years of age, and James is 2.

STRAIN WAS GREAT

Hereafter friends of friends will stay in jail for all of Mrs. Dellelo. The strain on the little corner grocery store is too great; the hazard to the six little Dellelos is too great. It is only gratitude on the part of the friend of a friend that is not great.

Mrs. Dellelo's husband is a contractor. Working for him was Tony Lazzarini, who has a friend, Joseph Condello.

Condello was arrested for carrying a revolver, carrying a dirk knife, and threatening bodily harm. He was held in $2000 in bail, awaiting trial in Suffolk Superior Criminal Court.

He appealed to his friend Lazzarini, who appealed to Dellelo and Dellelo in turn appealed to his wife to get Lazzarini's good friend Condello out of jail.

HOUSE AS BOND

Mrs. Dellelo opened her heart. She went into court and put up her house as bond. The house, she said, was assessed at $4000, and there was a mortgage of $1000 on it.

Condello was released on bail. But later an investigation showed that the house was assessed for only $1800, and there was a mortgage of $2500 on it. Meanwhile Condello vanished.

Mrs. Dellelo immediately was sued by the court for the $2500. On a plea by her counsel, David W. Murray, settlement was made for $1000, with the condition that Mrs. Dellelo should pay within three months or go to jail. And jail terms are reckoned on the basis of about 50 cents a day in default of the money.

There were three months between the mother and imprisonment. The scraping, scrimping and boarding began. Every extra penny taken in at the grocery store was carefully saved. Living expenses were kept down to rock bottom. Absolute penury was practiced.

BATTLE IS WON

But the battle was won. Every cent of the $1000—and $5 additional for costs—has been paid to the court and Mrs. Dellelo is out of the jail shadow.

Condello is still at large. Not only is he wanted here for jumping bail, but he is wanted in Providence on an indictment warrant, where $1000 reward is offered for his capture.

About 80 per cent of the electorate voted. Ludendorff took a prominent part in the campaign and delivered a speech in the peer cellar where last autumn's unsuccessful putsch started.

The delegation will be headed by John Brundt, of Duluth, president of the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries Association. He will speak for 100,000 dairy farmers of Minnesota and Wisconsin. more and more of the truck crop could be planted each year to permanent fruit trees and vines.

SPEAKING of this 40-acre arrangement, one of Imperial Valley's County Development Agents says, in part: "It is safe to figure $200 an acre from a good vineyard and $300 an acre from grapefruit, apricots and other tree fruit. When in full bearing asparagus will produce at least $200 an acre. Strawberries pay handsome profits. But, of course, it is the alfalfa, when fed to cows, pigs, poultry, etc., that insures a good meal ticket . . . Forty acres will, without question, insure independence."

*****

WHILE these figures are conservative, we like to impress upon the back-East farmer's mind that it requires hard work and consistent developing to succeed here, just as it does everywhere. Imperial Valley is blessed with exceedingly fertile soil, an abundance of low-rate water and almost perpetual sunshine . . . yet more is necessary: intelligent man power!

Forty Acres at Calipatria, Intelligently
Worked, Will Bring Big Returns

This message published by "The Calipatrians" an organization of Calipatria Farmers and Business Men.

THE experienced farmer from Kansas, Iowa or Minnesota may feel that it is practically impossible to make forty acres of land produce a good living. Here in the rich Calipatria District where we know that this seemingly impossible thing is being accomplished right along, we have long since been weaned away from such skepticism.

*****

WE can readily understand the short-season farmer's attitude. We can understand it because all of us had about the same ideas before we did our own investigating and dug up the facts.

*****

FOLLOWING a plan which has worked out successfully in many instances, this arrangement of a 40-acre tract of Calipatria land is advisable: 12 acres for alfalfa; 10 acres for garden truck; 8 acres for a vineyard and 6 acres for the orchard. The remaining 4 acres afford ample space for the home, yard, garden, poultry and stock coral, as well as for roads and ditches.

*****

WITH such a parcel of this rich soil, intelligently worked, the farmer and his family would undoubtedly enjoy a good living from the production of alfalfa, cows, pigs, poultry, garden truck, etc., while waiting for the vines and fruit trees to come into bearing. Of course when these mature,

Shawl or "Mantone"

THE wrapped-in-romance Shawl, born in the Philippines, whence it came to Old Spain, Mexico, California!

THE Shawl with which many Spanish grandees made fast the affections of his lady-love.

SHAWLS, which, if they were permitted speech, would tell tales of long sailing vessel voyages—ports made in Mexico, up the California coast—train journeys inland!

LITTLE did those during the olden times dream that the Shawl they adopted would come over so many years to 1924. The years later Woman would seek this shawl, embroidered for her adornment. But, 'tis so!

OLD Spanish chests have given up their treasures. Chinese women have lavishly embroidered new ones—copying old designs and originating new ones. Hand tying the flaring fringes that edge them.

THE Spanish Shawl today is as lovely as ever the old one dared be!

A new shipment just received. Priced from $75 to $250. (Hamburger's—First Floor)

For those a bit timid about wearing the shawl as a dress there is a real Shawl frock, fashioned on simple lines and with the printed designs of the embroidered shawl. Its lovely simplicity is something to covet. Priced $110.00. Women's Section, Second Floor.

Studebaker

Light Six Touring
This model is the economy of operation. It has a rain-proof windshield, cowl ventilator, coach-style parking lights, and a car of comfort.

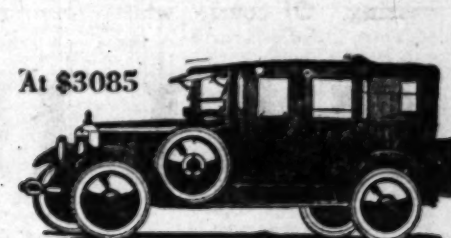

Light Six Coupe-Roadster
Especially popular among business and professional men, and women. Genuine leather upholstery, broad windows and clear vision, cowl ventilator, coach-style parking lights, four non-skid cord tires, large luggage compartment with handle and lock under rear deck, and transmission lock make this model a favorite.

Special Six 5-Passenger Touring
Beautiful lines, exceptionally roomy—119 inch wheel base. One-piece, rain-proof windshield with automatic cleaner and glare-proof glass visor. Cowl ventilator, rear-view mirror, large headlights, combination "stop" and tail light, inspection lamp at dash with extension cord; step-plate and "kick-plate" on running board, eight-day clock, seal compartment, and ignition and transmission locks.

Big Six Touring
Extra disc wheel, with non-skid cord tire, tube and cover; nickel-plated bumpers, odometer with ornamental radiator cap, clock, rear-view mirror, snubbers, corrugated rubber mats and aluminum "kick-plates," transmission lock, cowl ventilator, cowl lights in windshield base, courtesy light, tonneau lamp with extension cord, combination "stop" and tail light.

Big Six 7-Passenger Sedan
No car, regardless of price, has finer or more complete appointments than this 40-horsepower example of Studebaker supremacy. Equipped similar to the 5-Passenger Coupe, it also has two extra disc wheels with cord tires and covers and nickel-plated vanity case and smoking set.

You'll Be Amazed —or Ashamed

It depends on whether or not you investigate the Studebaker.

That means taking the time to go to the nearest Studebaker salesroom—and seeing for yourself.

You may be contemplating the purchase of a $4000 car.

Or you may be thinking of something in three figures.

But mark this: You will be amazed at what the Studebaker holds for you, regardless.

You'll gain a new knowledge of what your automobile money will buy.

Ignore these truths and eventually you'll be ashamed.

Ashamed, because you'll discover sooner or later that you have paid too much for another car equal to Studebaker.

This is not a claim.

It's a statement of fact.

It's for you to investigate!

You may even be prejudiced in favor of another automobile—so prejudiced that no other could possibly satisfy.

Still we say, see the Studebaker line.

against each car. There is your saving. And Studebaker makes them in every step necessary in the manufacture of a motor-car.

That fact alone explodes the theory of "Price Class." For it explains why one make of car, like the Studebaker, can be sold for hundreds of dollars less than another car of the same quality. Difference in price does not necessarily mean difference in quality. Studebaker has proved that.

Note the list of Studebaker models and their Los Angeles-delivered price as shown to the left. From this wide selection, you can pick a car to fit your income. And when you buy a Studebaker you know you are buying the utmost in automobile quality.

NOTAS LOCALES

Se le Negó Jurisdicción a Nuestra Comisión de Ferrocarriles

Ayer le fue negada por la Suprema Corte de la Nación, jurisdicción a la Comisión de Ferrocarriles del Estado de California en el asunto de la estación terminal en la Plaza, pues el fallo de aquel supremo cuerpo judicial establece que la citada comisión no tiene facultades para exigir a los tres ferrocarriles transcontinentales que entran en Los Angeles, que usen para construir aquí una estación terminal. Tampoco puede exigirle que supriman los pasos a nivel en Los Angeles.

Este fallo, que ya se esperaba, no demostrará en modo alguno la edificación de la estación central de pasajeros en esta ciudad, ni la abolición de los pasos a nivel que ocasionan los cruces a nivel, pues ya se ha trabajado con la Comisión del Comercio entre Estados para que sea ella la que expida las órdenes del caso, y la jurisdicción de ese cuerpo es aceptada de un modo general.

Net Quarterly Profits Over Three Million

Stock and Bond Offerings; Business News

First quarter operations of the Union Oil Company of California, as reported yesterday in the statement submitted to stockholders, are representative of the progress of the company in the petroleum industry by the recent advances in the price of crude oil and refined products. Net profits for the three months after the deduction of depreciation, depletion, and other charges, including the cost of the new refinery at Pico, were $3,100,000, an increase of 77 per cent over the same period in 1923 and the equivalent to $3.34 on the $27,918 shares of common stock outstanding. This is at the rate of nearly $13.50 annually.

The Union Oil statement, which is signed by President V. L. Stewart and Comptroller R. D. Matthews, is the first quarterly report issued in the western petroleum industry this year, and comes before the publication of the annual report of several of the leading California companies. It shows gross profits from all operations, less general expenses, taxes, interest charges, employees' share of profits and the provision fund, were $5,600,000, which compares with $5,000,000 for the corresponding period of last year. Provision for depletion and depreciation is shown at $1,550,000 and labor and incidental cost of new drilling at $850,000.

Production of crude oil by the company and its subsidiaries for the three months approximated 4,250,000 barrels, an increase over the same period of last year of 450,000 barrels. The further development of the Dominguez field (formerly known as Compton field) has demonstrated, according to the quarterly report, the value of the company's properties located there. In the Dominguez field, considerable difficulty was encountered in shutting down the water and no definite report is available as to the prospects for this territory.

In the State of Colorado two or three wells have been started, or will be started, as soon as the season permits, for the purpose of testing the three structures owned by the company under Fort Col. This.

Sales for the three months, the report states, approximated $15,000,000, an increase in value of $4,000,000. Exports of crude oil to the Atlantic seaboard have been materially reduced, while the price of fuel oil has been advanced 40 cents per barrel and gasoline and distillate 4 cents per gallon. Capital expenditures during the three months were approximately $2,800,000, consisting principally of the cost of drilling new wells and additions to the marketing station facilities.

The directors have authorized the payment of the regular quarterly dividend of $1.50 per share on the 25th inst. to stockholders of record on the 15th inst. The regular quarterly dividend of $1.50 per share of the Union Oil Associates is payable on the same date. The stock transfer books of the companies will not be closed.

Since the recent changes in the personnel in the directorate, the members of the board of directors of the Union Oil Company now are W. L. Stewart, president; R. D. Matthews, vice-president; R. J. Keeney, executive vice-president; F. W. Orent, vice-president; and C. W. Ralpin, director of sales and transportation. R. M. Macbeth, William R. Staats, Frank C. Bolt, A. P. Johnson, Guernsey E. Newlin, Henry M. Robinson, Henry W. O'Melveny, A. C. Balch, I. B. Newton and F. W. Allen.

DAILY TRADE TALK

Composite Trend of Business Thought; Advertising as a Barometer; Buying Decrease Noted

Three questions are dominating the composite business mind, according to L. M. Maynard, head of the research department of the National City Bank of Los Angeles, who is in New York on a visit to the economic and financial centers of the country. They are:

(1) The future of the European situation of foreign commerce.

(2) The political situation and its effect.

(3) The future status of business and prices.

Answering question No. 1, Mr. Maynard deduces from sources of information made available to him that both the European situation and foreign commerce are in a decidedly favorable situation provided political passions are suppressed and business theories applied to economic problems. Current private foreign exchange indicate that the principal features of the Daves recommendations will be:

To No. 2, the answer is that the fact that this is a Presidential year, and political campaign will not affect business unless the economic problem becomes a political issue. The possibility of a radical third party movement has a strong economic phase and is an unfavorable factor.

Respecting the future status of business and prices he finds the tendency to be toward a higher general level with prices advancing prices until midsummer, followed by relatively mild and short fluctuations. A gradual decline in the building program, and the building program, are now at their peak, he says, and concludes: The entire country is watching Los Angeles handle the new business problems being forced upon her. I have visited ten institutions which are considering locating factories in Los Angeles at a future date.

New Loan Made
BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE
NEW YORK, April 7.—After a period of irregular price fluctuations, active selling developed toward the close of today's bond market, carrying a variety of industrial issues down to new low levels for the year. Unfavorable trade reports were the basis for an attack against rubber and chemical company issues, with the downward trend accentuated by the renewal of bearish operations on the stock market.

New minimum figures for the year were established by Virginia-Carolina's which declined 3 1/8 to 60 1/8; American Agricultural Chemical's 5's; Kelly Springfield's 5's; Fisk Rubber's 5's; and Wilson Convertible's 4's. Heaviness developed in International Mercantile Marine's 4's; Cerro de Pasco's 5's; and New Haven, Erie and St. Paul issues, losses of 1 1/8 to 2 points in the rail group being attributed to profit-taking.

Recoveries of more than 3 points were registered by American Agricultural Chemical's 7 1/2's and Wickwire Spencer's 7's, both of which recently suffered severe losses. Banking interests identified with these companies said both issues had been singled out as targets for bear attacks and that a natural recovery was now taking place.

Four syndicates, comprising virtually all the city's largest banking institutions, will compete for the $45,000,000 New York State soldier bonus bond issue on which bids will be opened tomorrow. Other banks are submitting individual bids.

Following are closing quotations on bonds listed on the New York Stock Exchange, furnished by Lucas & Bros., 610 South Spring street:

Mr. T. R. Crumley, Vice-President of the Corporation, summarizes his attached letter as follows:

BUSINESS. Jersey Central Power & Light Corporation, incorporated under the laws of Virginia, furnishes, through local operating companies, including companies to be acquired by present financing, electric light and power service to sixty-four communities, and gas service to seventeen communities in central New Jersey. The Corporation also owns Lakewood Water Company, serving Lakewood and vicinity. The entire amount of outstanding stocks and bonds of the local operating companies are owned or are to be acquired by the Jersey Central Power & Light Corporation, with the exception of $2,000,000 divisional 5% bonds and 25 shares of stock of the Consolidated Gas Company of New Jersey.

TERRITORY. The territory served, which includes a portion of the great Metropolitan district tributary and suburban to New York City, as well as a section of New Jersey coast communities, has an aggregate population in excess of 213,000. This territory includes Morris-town, Summit, Boonton, Wanakee, Lakewood, Spring Lake, Point Pleasant, Long Branch, West Long Branch, Asbury Park, Allenhurst, Deal, Red Bank, Fairhaven, Eatontown, Elberon, Seabright, Monmouth Beach, Toms River, Pompton Lakes, Butler, Midvale, and lies, for the most part, within commuting distance of New York City.

In addition to its operations in New Jersey, which contribute about 80% of the net earnings, the Jersey Central Power & Light Corporation controls (through ownership of 78 2/3% of the common stock) Tide Water Power Company, which owns and operates the entire electric light and power, gas and electric railway business in Wilmington, N. C., and suburbs and the electric light and power properties in St. Petersburg and Clearwater, Florida.

PROPERTY. The electric system of the Corporation includes modern steam electric generating stations with a total installed capacity of 59,748 h.p., including 16,000 h.p. now under construction, and 176 miles of high tension transmission lines with a distributing system aggregating over 1,205 miles of line, serving over 37,905 consumers with electricity. The gas properties include generating stations with a daily capacity of 11,000,000 cubic feet and 209 miles of gas main, serving 13,594 customers. During the year 1923, 57,893,765 k.w. hours of electrical energy were generated and 594,160,400 cubic feet of gas manufactured.

OPERATING STATISTICS
The steady prosperous growth of the properties is reflected in part by the following table of statistics:

12 Months Ended	Gross Earnings	Net Earnings*	Customers	Miles of Electric Gas Main Elec. Line	Gas Output Cu. Ft.	Elec. Output K. W. H.
December 31, 1919	$2,388,081	$1,188,179	11,188	179	788	28,377,745
1920	3,048,235	1,604,152	12,012	22,799	187	52,628,400
1921	3,504,306	1,093,976	12,758	28,071	191	57,543,900

* Before prior charges of subsidiary companies.
** 12 months ended January 31.

VALUATION. The physical properties of the Corporation and its subsidiaries have recently been appraised by Messrs. Sanderson & Porter, New York, at a replacement value substantially in excess of the entire outstanding funded debt and Preferred Stock.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE. The proceeds from the present financing will be used to acquire the stock of Consolidated Gas Company of New Jersey and Tri-County Electric Company and the balance for other corporate purposes including additions and betterments to the properties.

EARNINGS. Consolidated net earnings after all prior charges, including federal taxes, for the twelve months ended January 31, 1924, were three and one-quarter times the annual dividend requirements on the entire outstanding Preferred Stock of the Corporation, including this issue. It is estimated that the unified and centralized operations and the management of these properties and the benefits of the interconnection to be made forthwith will result in materially larger earnings in the future, which, for the year 1924, are estimated at an increase of about 30%.

PARTICIPATION. After the preferred stock has received full 7% cumulative dividends and the common stock as a class has received a dividend amount of cash equal to a year's dividend requirement on the preferred, the preferred and common stock are entitled in any year to receive equally, as classes, any further moneys paid as dividends until the preferred stock has received $3 additional per share, or $10 for the year.

MANAGEMENT. The properties are under the management of the General Engineering & Management Corporation.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
MEXICO CITY, April 7.—The Mexican government is seeking a loan from the United States and that the authorities at Washington are not opposing the negotiations. The deduction made from an interview with Ambassador Warren.

Ambassador Warren would not commit himself on the loan question, but he replied in answer to questions that he has talked with Minister of Finance Alberto P. Pani, a personal friend, as a result of their association during the recent conference when Pani was Foreign Minister. Warren said that the loan was the subject of a meeting with the Minister of Finance. He said that the meeting was held on April 5, and that the Minister of Finance had expressed his interest in the loan. He said that the loan was a matter of internal Mexican policy, and that he was not in a position to discuss it.

Discussing the much-debated loan of $100,000,000 from the United States, Warren said that the Mexican government was still negotiating with the government of the United States. He said that the loan was a matter of internal Mexican policy, and that he was not in a position to discuss it. Department of Interior—Continued
The Bureau of Mines is another division. Its activities are wide in scope. It deals with the whole problem of mining and mining conditions, treatment of ores, oil and gas. It concerns itself with tests and analyses of coals, lignites, oil, gas and phosphate from lands mined under government lease.

For instance, $7,494,000 barrels of oil were produced on the public domain in 1923, which yielded revenue to the government of $3,617,000 barrels, valued at $10,244,000. The Secretary mentions sixty distinct activities of this bureau in his report for 1923. A total of $14,240,000 was spent by it for the fiscal year 1923. This is cut to $1,789,000 for 1924. An item for 1923 of $2,309,000 "for adjustment and payment of mineral claims" does not appear for 1924.

The National Park Service has charge of the work of supervision and preservation of the national parks and the seventeen national monuments. The Secretary enumerates in his 1923 report twenty activities of this division during the year. A total of $1,468,000 was spent in 1923 by this service. This is increased by almost $12,000 for 1924.

The Patent Office was first organized as a bureau of the State Department in 1836, and became a bureau of the Interior Department on the foundation of the latter in 1849. This bureau has charge of the administration of all patent laws and supervision of all matters relating to the granting of patent rights for inventors. For 1923 the number of applications received was 162,848. The Patent Office issued 200,000 copies of patents a month. For the fiscal year 1923 this bureau received $2,149,000 and is seeking for 1924 more for 1924. However, it is more than self-supporting. For 1923 its receipts were $2,000,000.

RECLAMATION FUNDS
The Reclamation Service is one of the most important in the department. It was organized in 1902. The total value of the land reclamation project is $1,202,130 acres of land were irrigated in 1923. WEEKLY COPPER
MARKET REVIEWEuropean Conditions Are on a Firmer BasisInquiries Numerous; Bar-

General Effect

BY CHARLES F. WILLIS

Editor "Arizona Mining Journal"

Further industrial disturbances in Europe following the fall of the Poincare administration in France have largely been responsible for the slow recession of the price of copper to its present low point of 13 to 14 cents. The effect has been to keep European tonnage out of the market in its usual quantity.

The situation in copper from the foreign angle cannot be reliably viewed close up, as the whole copper market is in a balance which is easily upset one way or the other in the price, but the conditions in Europe are believed to be such that a temporary slump.

Inquiries have been numerous and tonnages of copper are booked for delivery during April, May and June, most of this being booked under the terms of the contract. The market is generally firm, the producers holding out and there are but few bargains to be had. The market is confined to very small lots for immediate delivery.

MARCH PRODUCTION

It is anticipated that March domestic production will exceed previous production, thus again improving the statistical position of the metal. While the unblended ore in the hands of the manufacturers are somewhat lower than they were a few months ago, it is not felt that the consumers are buying copper as fast now as they are looking orders for it in the immediate future.

The whole copper situation is undergoing a transition. There is a readjustment of production and consumption, but there have remained very few exceptions. Changes in the copper situation are going to be slow, and we have no reason to expect any spectacular runs. The copper share market, which is being improved by the European countries as heavier buyers of copper.

There is no reason to anticipate any great increase in domestic production, but there have remained very few exceptions. Changes in the copper situation are going to be slow, and we have no reason to expect any spectacular runs. The copper share market, which is being improved by the European countries as heavier buyers of copper.

Improved Position
Continued slow improvement would probably be far better for the market than rapid fluctuations. The statistical position continues to improve, and the price is bound to rise. It is expected that the price will rise to 14 cents by June, then to 15 cents by September. It would be better to have a steady rise than a sudden jump.

TRACK PERMITS TO RAIL BOARD

State Commission Must Pass on Ordinances

Vote of Council is Eight to
One on Measures

City Engineer Aspects Plaza
Plan Not Menaced

The California Railroad Commission will now be called upon to approve or disapprove of two ordinances adopted by the City Council yesterday granting to the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroad companies revocable permits to make track changes so as to move the Southern Pacific freight traffic from the present Alameda street to the new Union Pacific tracks on the east bank of the Los Angeles River. The railroad companies assert that this will do much to relieve traffic congestion on Alameda street.

The removal of the Southern Pacific freight trains from part of Alameda street without obtaining any arrangement between the two railroads which includes the removal of the passenger business of the Union Pacific (Salt Lake) Railroad from its East First-street station to the Arcade station.

CAN BE CANCELED
City Attorney Stephens told the Council yesterday that the railroads could jointly use the Arcade station without obtaining any kind of permit or authority from the City Council, and he added that the transfer of the freight trains from Alameda street was a temporary experiment which could be canceled at any time by the city, as the ordinance contains stipulations that the city can at any time revoke the permits granted yesterday. These stipulations also include a clause which requires that the ordinance and permits shall be approved by the Railroad Commission before the permits are of any effect.

Councilman Stephens said that he would vote for the ordinance only because he had become convinced that the granting of them would in no way endanger the city's battle for a union passenger station at the Plaza.

VOTE EIGHT TO ONE
This view of the situation was disputed by Attorney W. A. Alderson and Attorney W. W. Clary of the Business Men's Co-operative Association and Central Development Association and Engineer Harry Hawgood, all of whom have long battled for the union station. They will now carry their opposition to the Railroad Commission, which must next pass up on the permits.

The vote in the Council was eight in favor of the ordinance granting the permits and one (Councilman Wheeler) opposed. Councilman Wheeler, who has consistently voted in support of the Plaza Union Station project made a strong speech in opposition to the granting of the permits as he declared they enabled the railroads to secure a new depot from which it would be impossible to move them when the courts had finally decided that the railroads must obey the order of the Railroad Commission and build and use an adequate union passenger station.

STATE BOARD'S POWERS DENIED

logical to believe that the Interstate Commerce Commission would consider favorably the decision of the Railroad Commission.

PEOPLE BACK PLAN

"The people should not get discouraged. The members of the North Main Street Improvement Association, the Lincoln Heights Commercial and Industrial Association and the Greater Highland Park Association, whom I represented before the Railroad Commission, still stand solidly back of the Plaza terminal plan. I am confident that the Interstate Commerce Commission will follow in the footsteps of the State Railroad Commission," said F. W. Blanchard, president of the Municipal Art Commission, president of the Interstate Commerce Association and treasurer of the Business Men's Co-operative Association.

"Already the forces of the city and State have spent $75,000 in the collection of data showing that the Plaza is the most fitting place for the terminal, and I see no reason why the Interstate Commerce Commission will not be able to pass on it without further hearings. I consider it bad spirit on the part of the railroad toward the citizens of Los Angeles to oppose a decision sanctioned by every tribunal and engineer that has reviewed it. The thousands of people that I represented in the matter are still very much in favor of the Plaza terminal."

VIEW OF COMMISSIONER
"The members of the State Railroad Commission will await with interest the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission on the Plaza terminal station," declared Egerton Shore, State Railroad Commissioner, who arrived at the Clark Hotel here last night to be present at the telephone rate hearing today.

"Very naturally we are hopeful that they will uphold our findings on the question after the stand made by the commission. While the decision of the United States Supreme Court irrevocably takes the terminal out of the commission's hands, I doubt if it in any way affects its jurisdiction as to rates and other railroad matters."

"We, the commissioners, do not view the Supreme Court's action as in any way affecting the question as to whether or not there will be a terminal station."

HISTORY OF CASE
Back in 1916 a movement was begun for a union terminal. The State Railroad Commission jointly with the city held hearings here, and finally the commission ordered the three carriers to file plans for the proposed joint station and for the grade-crossing eliminations decided on which numbered about a hundred. The railroads, however, without filing any plans, appealed to the State Supreme Court, challenging the right of the state railroad commission to make such an order. In that and in subsequent litigation the reasonableness of the order was not brought into question.

The State Supreme Court held that the Transportation Act of 1920 took away whatever rights in this respect the State might have previously, and that full power was invested in the Interstate Commerce Commission. The decision handed down yesterday by Chief Justice Taft and his colleagues is precisely what the city and the State Railroad Commission wanted.

Commission then jointly appealed the case to the United States Supreme Court, and the city proceeded to lay the matter before the Interstate Commerce Commission, in expectation of a contrary decision as to the State Commission's jurisdiction.

JOINED IN PLEA
When the case reached the United States Supreme Court, twenty-nine other State regulatory commissions joined in the plea to uphold a State's right to regulate railroads in the matters at debate. Also, the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners similarly joined in the prayer of Los Angeles and the California State Railroad Commission. These briefs argued that the States should have just right, provided their orders did not conflict with the rulings of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The railroads in their answer denied that the cases presented questions of dangerous grade crossings, and asked that the right of the State to regulate the use of passenger facilities be determined.

One technical point of difference came about through the railroads' argument that the project entailed "extensions" and "abandonment" of track, and that the Interstate Commerce Commission has specific jurisdiction. This the State attorneys denied, asserting that the railroads could enter the terminal on their own tracks except the approach to the proposed station, which could not be designated as "extensions" and "abandonment" of track.

Los Angeles also contended that jurisdiction over terminals conferred on the Interstate Commerce Commission by the Act of 1920 was intended only to deal with the use by one railroad of the existing terminal facilities of another, and that it did not apply to the acquisition of new property or construction of a new station on a new site. The railroads, however, held that the 1920 act clearly dealt with the construction of a new station, and that the whole scheme of the Federal government in its rate system would be wrecked if the use of terminals, their construction of new lines, their abandonment of old lines.

LAW IS CITED
Then the court continued in part: "On the one hand it is urged that with the purposes thus declared the act commits to the supervision and control of the Interstate Commerce Commission such an undertaking as is here in question, involving a new capital investment of $25,000,000 to $45,000,000 in the terminals of three great interstate railway systems in the largest city of our western coast. On the other hand it is earnestly contended that since no specific provision is made for the supervision of interstate union stations by the Interstate Commerce Commission the whole subject remains in the control of the State railroad commissions."

The opinion points out that Part 3, Section 1, of the act gives the Interstate Commerce Commission power to regulate joint or common use of terminals including main tracks or tracks for the use of the Interstate Commerce Commission, but that it does not give the commission power to regulate such terminals as are outside of the main tracks or tracks for the use of the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is in this third paragraph that all carriers shall afford all reasonable facilities for the interchange of traffic between their respective lines and for forwarding and delivering passengers and freight. A fourth paragraph provides that the commission may require the use of roadway facilities by another carrier.

INTENT OBVIOUS
"It is obvious from the foregoing," continues the opinion, "that Congress intended to give the supervising and fostering direction of the Interstate Commerce Commission all existing facilities in the matter of distribution of cars and equipment and in joint terminals in the exchange of interstate passengers and freight between railroads so as to make it prompt and continuous. This is the drastic limitation on the carrier's control and use of its own property in order to secure convenience and dispatch. It gives to the Interstate Commerce Commission the power and duty where the public interest requires to make out of what is the passenger or freight station of one interstate carrier a union station."

To say that this power is limited to existing stations, holds the court, would mean that the commission to establish a "small and contracted union station" and would leave "the larger and more important union stations of interstate carriers to the control of the State railroad commissions."

Further authority for the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission is found in paragraphs 18 to 21 of Section 40. "They provide," says the opinion, "that no railroad or carrier shall undertake the extension of its line of railroad or the construction of a new line, or shall engage in transportation or other such additional or extended line unless and until the commission shall certify that public convenience or interest requires it. Such a certificate is, we think, necessary for the construction of a new interstate union station."

In this connection the Court refers to Section 20-A of Section 439 of the Transportation Act, which subjects stock and bond issues to the scrutiny of the commission, and says: "Such a heavy burden as that involved in this new union station and the main tracks and extensions and other accessories would in all probability require the raising of new capital securities, and this could not be done without the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission. To be sure this provision only becomes operative when securities have been issued and are not intended to prevent action by a State commission until such securities are seen to be necessary, but the provision indicates the general Congressional plan."

The Court concludes by referring to the petition of the city of Los Angeles now pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission and says: "For the reasons given we think the course taken by the City of Los Angeles was the correct one. Until the Interstate Commerce Commission shall have acted under paragraphs 18 to 21 of Section

City's Move Before National Body Approved

WASHINGTON, April 7.—In its decision upholding the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission over the proposed Los Angeles union passenger station at the Plaza, the Supreme Court today discussed many sections of the Transportation Act of 1920, all of which, it declared, required that the national body must pass on the question of the establishment of the terminal. At the same time the court indicated that the State attorneys' contention had plenty of power to control the abolition of grade crossings in the interest of public safety.

After reciting the history of the case and the present proposed location of stations and tracks in Los Angeles, the court quoted from its own recent decision in another case as follows: "The act seeks affirmatively to build up a system of railways prepared to handle promptly all the interstate traffic of the country. To that end it gives the Interstate Commerce Commission power to regulate the use of terminals, their construction of new lines, their abandonment of old lines."

On the one hand it is urged that with the purposes thus declared the act commits to the supervision and control of the Interstate Commerce Commission such an undertaking as is here in question, involving a new capital investment of $25,000,000 to $45,000,000 in the terminals of three great interstate railway systems in the largest city of our western coast. On the other hand it is earnestly contended that since no specific provision is made for the supervision of interstate union stations by the Interstate Commerce Commission the whole subject remains in the control of the State railroad commissions."

The opinion points out that Part 3, Section 1, of the act gives the Interstate Commerce Commission power to regulate joint or common use of terminals including main tracks or tracks for the use of the Interstate Commerce Commission, but that it does not give the commission power to regulate such terminals as are outside of the main tracks or tracks for the use of the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is in this third paragraph that all carriers shall afford all reasonable facilities for the interchange of traffic between their respective lines and for forwarding and delivering passengers and freight. A fourth paragraph provides that the commission may require the use of roadway facilities by another carrier.

RAIL UNITY FOR PORT STRESSED

In the future growth of an ambitious city which may be one of many such cities, the Interstate Commerce Commission appears to be not only toward the unification of harbor terminals but is apparently toward municipal or State control.

The speaker cited instances and continued: "It is not a question of cost. It is a question of efficiency and economic operation. The public ownership of the terminal facilities, the elimination of duplication, that it gives the city a fairer service and a freer safety of both commerce and industry."

EXAMPLE CITED
With obvious desire that local application should be made, Mr. Colman described the experience of an Atlantic city.

From this illustration transition was made to what Mr. Colman described as a "case in point, developed by the plans of the Santa Fe Railway to reach Los Angeles Harbor. A number of industrial citizens of Los Angeles," he continued, "look upon the Santa Fe plan to build its own harbor as a right of way. It was suggested that the Santa Fe should make track arrangements with another railway or, as an alternative, parallel the Southern Pacific. Either plan would be a disaster to the city."

Industrial growth is highly desirable in Southern California. The Santa Fe reaches a vast interior, furnishes many raw materials and an extensive market for manufactured goods. A great variety of selection and where the population accompanying industrial development is spread out instead of concentrating in the comfortable industrial population already established along the coast.

"This Los Angeles situation applies in different degrees to other important cities of our country. A complete terminal system, operating with equality of service, with the necessary approaches, both rail and highway, has good reason to be desired."

CITY PLANNING
"What Planning Has Done for Cities," as told in the replies of some 300 cities and towns, known for their planning activity, to a questionnaire sent out by the National Conference, was received by George B. Fernald, president of the night session. His findings, summarized, follow:

More new towns have been built according to plan within the last ten to fifteen years than during the previous history of the country. Almost every planning commission in the country is now at least passing upon each subdivision plan as filed. Los Angeles added to its subdivision area last year more than nearly all the cities of the five or six States where it is authorized by law to exercise a controlling planning for three miles outside city limits, except in Virginia. This planning is a huge accomplishment directly due to city planning, for most of the growth of cities is obviously by private subdivisions.

At least forty cities in their replies cited cases of street widening or extension executed or adopted during the last year or two largely because they were a part of the city plan. Throughfares through outlying territory of Los Angeles delegates thought of Wilshire Boulevard—are usually the best to be done in the preparation of a city plan.

Various railroad stations are being located where the city plan showed that they would best serve the public. Waterway and port development has usually preceded city planning, but in Newark, Perth Amboy, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Seattle, Toledo, Los Angeles, Elmond, San Diego and Chicago, it is definitely a part of the city plan. At least 100 cities have acquired public parks, reservations or playgrounds, thanks to city plans. Two hundred cities and cities are now protecting property by zoning. Not one community that has passed a zoning ordinance has revoked it.

MRS. EMMA BOUSKA GIVEN $150 PER MONTH BY JUDGE'S RULING

(Illustration on First Page)
Mrs. Emma Bouska, who in her suit for separate maintenance from William Bouska, claims that after twenty-two years of married life during which she helped him increase his income from $30 to $1000 per month and build up a fortune of $150,000 he has started supporting another woman, was awarded temporary alimony of $150 per month by Judge Paul Burke yesterday. Bouska also was ordered to pay a $500 fee to her attorney, Phillip Cohen.

"Mrs. Bouska is a match for any man," Judge Burke commented, after she had testified concisely and accurately concerning her husband's business affairs.

In her complaint Mrs. Bouska charges that her husband supplied funds to start and maintain another woman in business. She said she found this woman "behind a soda counter," she says.

APPROVES COURSE
The Court concludes by referring to the petition of the city of Los Angeles now pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission and says: "For the reasons given we think the course taken by the City of Los Angeles was the correct one. Until the Interstate Commerce Commission shall have acted under paragraphs 18 to 21 of Section

SNOW PROMISES POWER RELIEF

p.m. when it terminated as abruptly as it began. The rain gauge put up by K. V. Wolf, Olive banker, registered 81 of an inch, bringing the season's total for that place up to 3.5 inches.

RAILSTONES FALL
Hailstones like marbles fell in Olive with considerable force, covering the streets and housetops with a thick coat of white. In low spots the hailstones piled up in little drifts six inches deep, while the hills near by were transformed into white peaks. The hail remained on the ground for an hour.

At Bakerfield light rain fell late yesterday evening after one of the heaviest winds experienced in years. Several huge trees were uprooted and telephone and power companies reported damage to their lines. Rainfall was only a trace.

RAIN CAUSES DEATH
The rain was believed responsible for the death yesterday of H. Webster of 818 Sunset Boulevard, an Edison lineman, who was electrocuted while at work atop a sixty-foot iron pole at Fifty-fifth street and Central avenue. Webster was working near the 2300-foot wires and it is supposed wet insulation conducted the current to him. After he received the shock a freer safety belt held him swinging aloft until the belt was burned through, when his body dropped. Webster was working with I. G. Gidden, another lineman, who called the University station ambulance. Webster was dead when it arrived. His body was taken to the E. B. McCormick undertaking room.

TABLE OF FALL
Following is the rainfall in inches at various points reported up to 5 p.m. yesterday:

Santa Fe reaches a vast interior, furnishing a market for manufactured products. To compel this railway to use another railway, or to parallel it to the harbor, would be to congest the rail traffic but seriously retard industrial expansion.

To secure its right of way some miles of competing lines affords a new industrial area where values are more reasonable, where is a much greater variety of selection, and where the stimulus of competing industrial development is spread out instead of congested in the comfortable industrial population concentrated in the old city and the older railway lines.

PETITIONS IN POWER GRAB SUFFICIENT

Check of Voters Asking for Referendum Shows Excess of 15 Per Cent

More than 15 per cent of the registered voters of Los Angeles signed the referendum petitions against the Power bureau's two "gas grab" ordinances, City Clerk Dominguez yesterday reported to the City Council. He announced the result of the complete check of the petitions asking that the voters be given an opportunity to pass upon the two ordinances which authorize the Power Bureau to spend $50,000 as the foundation for a condemnation of the $20,000,000 electric power plant of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation. If the Power Bureau were carried out this long-desired plan, it will give the bureau an unregulated monopoly of the electric light and power business in Los Angeles.

Under the law, a 15 per cent petition makes it mandatory upon the Council to call a special election to vote upon the ordinances which have been subjected to the referendum. This special election the Council is attempting to avoid by ordering the two ordinances placed on the May 6 election ballot, where they will be Propositions Nos. 3 and 18.

When filed several months ago, the two referendum petitions bore a total of 15,144 names. The Superior Court ordered that the signatures be completely checked, and this was done up to and slightly beyond the figure which showed that the petitions bore the signatures of more than 15 per cent of the total number of registered voters. This 15 per cent was 15,413, and the City Clerk's final check showed that the 15,000 "gas grab" ordinance bore more than 15,820 signatures of registered voters, thus making both more than 15-per-cent petitions. Should the "gas grab" ordinance carry at the May 6 election, it is expected that their legality will be attacked in the law in failing to call a special election.

Clayton Dorchester, asserted member of the "Big Hutch" gang of bunco men, dropped his pretenses yesterday that his name is Dennison and pleaded guilty to stealing $20,000 from Mrs. Ethel Hupp. Judge Rees sentenced him to one to ten years in San Quentin, where several other members of the gang are confined.

There were several other counts in the charge against Dorchester, which will not be pressed in consideration of his plea. Dist. Atty. Keyes said. The District Attorney took personal charge of the case. Dorchester was arrested in San Lake City after a search of 10-20 years. He fought extradition, attempting his arrest was a case of mistake identity, and made several efforts for release from jail here on the same grounds.

PETITIONS IN POWER GRAB SUFFICIENT

Check of Voters Asking for Referendum Shows Excess of 15 Per Cent

More than 15 per cent of the registered voters of Los Angeles signed the referendum petitions against the Power bureau's two "gas grab" ordinances, City Clerk Dominguez yesterday reported to the City Council. He announced the result of the complete check of the petitions asking that the voters be given an opportunity to pass upon the two ordinances which authorize the Power Bureau to spend $50,000 as the foundation for a condemnation of the $20,000,000 electric power plant of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation. If the Power Bureau were carried out this long-desired plan, it will give the bureau an unregulated monopoly of the electric light and power business in Los Angeles.

Under the law, a 15 per cent petition makes it mandatory upon the Council to call a special election to vote upon the ordinances which have been subjected to the referendum. This special election the Council is attempting to avoid by ordering the two ordinances placed on the May 6 election ballot, where they will be Propositions Nos. 3 and 18.

When filed several months ago, the two referendum petitions bore a total of 15,144 names. The Superior Court ordered that the signatures be completely checked, and this was done up to and slightly beyond the figure which showed that the petitions bore the signatures of more than 15 per cent of the total number of registered voters. This 15 per cent was 15,413, and the City Clerk's final check showed that the 15,000 "gas grab" ordinance bore more than 15,820 signatures of registered voters, thus making both more than 15-per-cent petitions. Should the "gas grab" ordinance carry at the May 6 election, it is expected that their legality will be attacked in the law in failing to call a special election.

Clayton Dorchester, asserted member of the "Big Hutch" gang of bunco men, dropped his pretenses yesterday that his name is Dennison and pleaded guilty to stealing $20,000 from Mrs. Ethel Hupp. Judge Rees sentenced him to one to ten years in San Quentin, where several other members of the gang are confined.

There were several other counts in the charge against Dorchester, which will not be pressed in consideration of his plea. Dist. Atty. Keyes said. The District Attorney took personal charge of the case. Dorchester was arrested in San Lake City after a search of 10-20 years. He fought extradition, attempting his arrest was a case of mistake identity, and made several efforts for release from jail here on the same grounds.

A. S. Moody, president of the club, was chairman of the day in the absence of Carl A. Heinze. Miss Nell Mitchell sang with Miss Alma Urquhart as accompanist. The Electric Club is planning a series of programs under supervision of A. L. Spring, chairman of the program committee. The club membership has increased until it has become necessary to provide additional accommodations for members. Members yesterday were asked to appear on time each Monday in order that the meeting may close at 1:30 o'clock.

Charles E. Stubbs, Novelist, Leaving for Spain for Atmosphere for Latest Book

A prolific writer of glittering Alaskan best-sellers has been accused of producing them for the sole purpose of accumulating money to go to Alaska to see that country with his own eyes. Stubbs, who is now in the city, is preparing to leave for Spain to get the exact atmosphere for his latest novel, "The Land of Liberty." He has already written one volume, "His Majesty's Guest," and the manuscript for another, "The Land of Liberty," is now in the hands of the publishers. "I can't get the proper atmosphere into my books unless I am actually on the ground to see the things I am writing about," he explained. "I have already visited Spain and started the book I am now working on some years ago. But I have decided to revamp it and to add certain features that will necessitate my going to Spain in Morocco."

The book, which is a historical romance of the time of Ferdinand and Isabella, deals especially with the expulsion of the Moors from Granada. Mr. Stubbs is writing it with a view to its being filmed after it is published. American water-coolers in which the water from an inverted glass bottle is drawn through a receptacle filled with ice, are becoming popular in humid Singapore.

Lanzit Pleads Not Guilty to Murder Charge

Joseph J. Lanzit yesterday appeared before Judge Shank and pleaded not guilty to charges of attempting to murder his wife, Josephine, and her mother and brother, by planting a dynamite bomb under her place of business near Venice.

It is charged that Lanzit plotted to kill the members of his wife's family in order to obtain a fortune of about $200,000. It was through his asserted plotting with Fred Tate, a Canadian explosives expert, who reported to Sheriff Traeger, that Lanzit's arrest was accomplished. Lanzit is held in the County Jail under $10,000 bonds. His trial was set for May 9.

NOTE IS STONE CASE CLEW

Mysterious Missive Signed "Pasadena Jack" Gives Information to Police

A mysterious note with the cryptic signature "Pasadena Jack" received by the police yesterday is expected to prove a valuable clew to the identity of the slayer of Mrs. Vera Stone, according to Assistant Captain of Detectives Longuevan.

The police will endeavor to locate the sender of the note, believing that he can cast light on the brutal murder of Mrs. Stone in her apartment Friday night and bring about the arrest of the man who beat in her head and strangled her to death.

ADMITS QUARREL
The writer of the note, the exact contents of which were not given out, denied that he is the "Jack" the police are searching for. He admitted, however, that he is known as Jack; was a good friend of the dead woman; had a quarrel with her a short time ago.

HOTEL MAN HELD UNDER WRIGHT ACT

Effort to Find Owner of Seized Liquor Leads to His Arrest

Two months ago Officer Schubert of the vice squad reported he found a suitcase of bootleg liquor in the basement of the Virginia Grand Hotel, 921 South Grand avenue. In the lobby of the hotel he arrested Chester Dennison, who, Schubert said, took the blame for the liquor.

Several days ago Dennison went on trial on the charge of possessing the liquor. He pleaded not guilty, declaring he just happened to be in the hotel lobby. He also denied he accepted the responsibility for the bootleg.

Accordingly the case was continued until Officer Schubert could bring the manager of the hotel, J. Huntman, into court to find out whose liquor it was.

Yesterday Officers Schubert, Maxwell and Hayes were on their way to the hotel to serve the summons on Huntman. At Fourth and South Figueroa streets, Schubert saw two familiar figures in an automobile.

"There's Huntman now," said Schubert. "We won't have to go to the hotel to serve him with the summons."

The officers served the papers. And then one of the officers suggested they look in the rear of the automobile. There they found, the officers assert, a case of choice liquor.

Both Huntman and Dennison were charged with violation of the Wright Act.

BETTER OFFICE EQUIPMENT

The man who is playing hooky from the barber feels an "inferiority complex" when talking to a prospect. Shabby office furnishings will play the same mean trick. Yet frequently the man who is freshly shaved and immaculate in appearance will sit at a scarred and battered desk. By suggesting and supplying correct office equipment, Pacific Desk Company is creating in many men a desirable self-esteem and is increasing the respect in which they are held by their business associates.

ROBBERY STORY FOR GRAND JURY

Rancher to Tell Inquisitors of Norwalk Hold-up

Expected to Bear Out Tale Related by O'Neal

Sullivan and Woman to be Named, Officers Think

New and important details connected with the robbery of the Norwalk State Bank last October and the disposal of the plunder are expected to be disclosed to the county grand jury this morning by L. V. Scott, rancher of San Gabriel. His story, which has not previously been told to the grand jury, is expected to substantiate the confession of James (Buck) O'Neal, who recently pleaded guilty to the robbery and was sentenced to San Quentin for from one year to life. Scott is said to be a friend of O'Neal. He is not implicated in either the robbery or the disposal of the plunder, according to the authorities investigating the robbery.

Besides serving to verify O'Neal's version of the hold-up which implicated Frank Sullivan, hunted as a suspect in both the Norwalk and the Arcadia bank robberies, Scott's testimony is expected to assist the authorities in running down the real bandits in the Arcadia robbery, for which it is declared three innocent Mexicans are serving prison terms in Folsom and San Quentin.

According to the authorities, Scott's story is expected to be as follows: On the day of the robbery of the Norwalk bank, O'Neal, Sullivan and a woman, whose identity has not been revealed, appeared at Scott's ranch. O'Neal, on the pretext of wanting to give Sullivan

CITY HOST TO EAST INDIANS

High Caste Family en Route London Detained Here Because of Children's Illness

Los Angeles is host to a family in a strange land, strange customs and strange dress. Down in the Mexican and Russian quarter on the East Side where the family sojourns the folk say they are gypsies; at the City Health Department they are reputed to be Turkish. But the fact is they are high caste British Indians. Only misfortune could have brought Judge H. G. Sarwar and his family into the neighborhood. They have an apartment in a house at 124 North Rio street. Judge Sarwar wears a skull cap and a black cape overcoat. His neatly trimmed beard and perfect English denote his breeding. His wife and full-grown daughter wear the Malayan native dress, and when the family goes out, as they do every day, even those used to the strange garb of the foreign quarter wonder at them.

Judge Sarwar and his wife go daily to the County Hospital where their two small children are quarantined, which accounts for the family's sojourn here. The Indian is judge of the district court of Singapore. He is on leave from his government, and is traveling to London to attend the death of his father.

and the woman a drink of liquor, was allowed by Scott to go into a back room at the ranch. A short time afterward O'Neal came out and told Scott he had just played a "dirty trick" on him. O'Neal then told Scott that he had used the room to split $12,500. Scott asked O'Neal where he got so much money and the latter told him he had just held up a bank with Sullivan's help.

Scott's story of the split was first told to Chief Criminal Deputy Sheriff Harry Wright and Associate Chief Criminal Deputy Hotz. It is believed that the grand jury also will go into the matter of the Arcadia bank robbery in which nearly $10,000 in cash and securities were secured.

O'Neal also will testify before the grand jury today or tomorrow, it is said. Another witness expected to appear before the inquisitorial body today or tomorrow is H. C. Hattersch, formerly cashier of the First National Bank at Arcadia now in a similar position at the Van Nuys Bank at Van Nuys. He and several others were held up at the bank. His testimony is expected to be concerning the descriptions of the gunmen.

It is not thought that Hubert Kittie, former police investigator, whose confession of a huge crime ring brought startling disclosures to the authorities, will be called to repeat his testimony today.

happy homes and home sites. San Francisco is the metropolis of the Great Valley and these little sister valleys near the sea, and throughout this vast central region moderate prices for real estate prevail.

On the Peninsula you will come to some of the suburban cities of San Francisco. They are cleanly, garden cities of lovely homes—communities of mansions and of cottages, of bungalows and Spanish type dwellings. Flowers are profuse, and you will see great rows of towering eucalyptus trees lending unusual interest to highway drives and daily suburban trips.

In San Francisco you will feel at home—for San Francisco is hospitable, and has more hotels and apartments than any city of its size in the world. Chinatown will fascinate you—the street flower stands and extensive parks will charm you.

But description is futile. You may reach this country on El Camino Real—a paved highway coming via mountains and seaside, directly to us, or by rail—a clean quick trip. Spend a few days seeing both the old and romantic—the new and progressive San Francisco. Call on Californians Inc. when you reach here—a non-profit organization of institutions and individuals interested in the sound development of the State. We will aid you in planning sightseeing trips, or in selecting your ideal home. Authoritative information on California subjects will be at your disposal. The service is gratis. ## CRIMES LAID TO 'BLONDE BANDIT'

Captured Woman Believed Wanted in East

Description Fits That in Bank Robberies

Suspect Arrested in Room of Gunman Here

Three additional bank robberies and other eastern crimes known to have been punctuated with revolver battles were linked yesterday to the careers of Lola McClung, believed to be the "blonde bandit" who participated in many local robberies, and George Ferguson, her companion, according to information received by Deputy Sheriff Bell, captain of Sheriff Traeger's robbery squad.

Mrs. McClung and Ferguson were arrested by the Sheriff's robbery squad and J. N. Pyles, detectives in the round-up of what officials believe to be one of the most dangerous gangs of criminals that has ever operated in Los Angeles.

Ferguson, with Carey Wilson, was captured in the act, it is charged, of robbing the Leighton Cafeteria last week and is said to have been identified as the slayer of Joseph Langley, motion-picture theater manager, and the leader of a group of gunmen who have robbed many cafes and had planned to rob several local banks. Mrs. McClung was in his room at the time she was arrested and her trunk was found a complete counterfeiting outfit, blonde wig and other means of disguise, officers stated.

Working on the theory that Ferguson and Mrs. McClung had been implicated in crimes other than in Los Angeles, Chief Criminal Deputy Sheriff Wright sent out their descriptions throughout the East. Within a few days Deputy Sheriffs Monteleon, White, Neighbors and Dewar gathered the following information:

In 1920, the Smithsonian State Bank of Missouri was robbed and a large amount of money was obtained by bandits, a man and a blonde woman. Deputy Sheriff Bennett of Cooper county, Mo., arrested L. O. McAleer, alias Jack Clifton, and Lola Kramer for the crime. Ferguson and Mrs. McClung yesterday were identified as L. O. McAleer and Lola Kramer, according to Deputy Sheriff Bell. McAleer, following his arrest in Missouri, escaped jail and the woman was released later.

In 1922, L. O. McAleer was arrested in Ratoon, N. M., as the man who robbed the Smithsonian Bank and later escaped. The woman with the blonde wig was arrested with him and both were returned to Sedalia, Mo. The disposition of this case has not been learned by local authorities.

KANSAS CITY ROBBERY
On December 8, 1923, the Dover National Bank at Kansas City was robbed of $37,000 by a gang of gunmen, aided by a blonde woman who drove their car. A deputy United States Marshal was killed during the commission of this crime. According to Deputy Sheriff Bell's information, all of the participants in the robbery but one man and the woman have been captured. This man and woman are declared by authorities to resemble Ferguson and Lola McClung.

Four months ago a bank was robbed in Dallas, Tex., at which the blonde woman again appeared, according to the Sheriff's information. Ferguson and Mrs. McClung are said to resemble description of the bandits.

While gathering their information Deputy Sheriffs Monteleon, White, Neighbors and Dewar learned that the "blonde bandit" in each robbery always made a small deposit in the bank to be looked after. A period of two or three days was spent by her in studying the place. She is said to have done most of the planning, strengthening her plans with carefully drawn floor plans of the bank and the various avenues of escape. She is also said to have been the driver of the bandits' automobiles on their criminal escapades.

BANK PLANS FOUND
When Mrs. McClung was arrested a grand plan of the Hellman Commercial branch bank at Tenth street and Broadway was found in her possession, according to the deputies.

Eugene Case, Pershing Square orator and sidewalk philosopher, still was being held in the County Jail yesterday as a material witness. He has admitted that the weapons the "blonde bandit" used in Ferguson and Wilson in several robberies were his property, according to deputies.

Judge Blames Self-Pity as Divorce Cause

Husbands and wives actuated by motives of self-pity are usually the ones divorced, Judge Paul Burks declared from the bench yesterday. He ordered Mrs. Ruth Lavars and Harold H. Lavars to attempt to adjust their difficulties.

Mrs. Lavars, suing, based her complaint principally on her husband's refusal to let her visit relatives. She came before the court yesterday asking an alimony allowance and it developed she and her husband were still living under the same roof.

"I think you are too sorry for yourself," said Judge Burks to the cause of most divorces, "I will deny your alimony request, and I believe you and your husband can get together. As for you, Lavars, you must let your wife visit relatives if she wants to."

"It's all right with me," Lavars retorted.

DR. SWEET ACQUITTED
Dr. E. A. Sweet of Long Beach was acquitted by a jury in Judge Reeve's department of the Superior Court yesterday of a charge of violating the State poison law.

APRIL 8, 1924.—[PART II.] 21

This is a vertical, high-contrast black and white image. The left side shows a textured surface, possibly a book cover or endpaper, with a series of white circular patterns along the right edge. The texture is dark and grainy, with some lighter areas suggesting wear or different materials. The circular patterns are white and appear to be part of a larger design or a series of holes. The overall composition is minimalist and abstract.

OPPORTUNITIES ORCHESTRA

The professors of Cornell University, Thaddeus T. Twain, says, are not the driest at Cornell in any of other colleges in the country. "I do not think the electro" largely of the witless girls, who have refused to associate with a man who has even a faint smelt of liquor about him. No man can drink at Cornell and be in good standing socially. The girls have banded together, and refused permit drinking at any social gathering. They have boycotted men on their part, and have been ingenious on this rule. [Exchange.]

The image is a vertical, high-contrast scan of a dark, textured surface. It appears to be a book cover or a piece of aged, dark wood. A prominent vertical crease or fold runs down the center, creating a slight shadow and highlighting the texture on either side. The surface is covered in fine, vertical lines and some larger, irregular marks, suggesting wear or the natural grain of the material. The lighting is very dark, with only a few highlights defining the texture and the central crease.

DO YOU NEED A GOOD BANK?

ASSOCIATE the two ideas, the two words, "bank" and "Security" in your mind. When you think of a bank, think of the Security Bank.

For more than thirty five years the management of this bank has been practically the same, and the policy has been the same—to make it every year a better bank in every way that a bank could be made better.

Today, we have more than 275,000 depositors.

GRAY HAIR IS QUICKLY DARKENED

Makes One Look Twenty Years Younger

Men and women who used to be called Grandpa and Grandma are now getting the style by darkening their gray hair with a simple home mixture. For instance, J. A. McCracken, well-known Californian, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture in five minutes, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. Merely take a half-pint of water, add a couple of bar of soap, a small box of Barbo Compound, 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Three ingredients can be bought at any drug store at trifling cost. Apply to the hair twice weekly with comb. It does not color the scalp, it not sticky or greasy and will not rub off. (Advertisement.)"

Eyes Bad? Try Camphor

For eye trouble there is nothing better than simple camphor, hyaline, the witch hazel, etc., as mixed by Lavette eye wash. One small bottle helps any case nose, weak or strained eyes. Aluminum eye cup formed by the Dickinson Drug Co., 300 South Main St., and all druggists. (Advertisement.)

Relief from constipation without "druggery" laxatives

LAXATIVES that contain drugs excite the intestinal tract. That is why they are dangerous. After a time it is difficult to do without them.

Physicians have recognized this and have recommended two harmless and drugless substances—Mineral Oil and Agar-Agar (Japanese Sea Moss)—to correct constipation by mechanical means. Neither is absorbed by the system. They contain no drugs.

These two substances have been combined in AGRILIN.

What AGRILIN is AGRILIN is a snow-white, creamy emulsion—tasteless and odorless. The Agar-Agar corrects the

SEVENTY TAKEN IN VICE RAIDS

Thousands of Lottery Tickets Found in Barn

Three Chinese Arrested as Operators of Game

Stills Seized and Crap Game is Broken Up

A series of spectacular raids by the police vice squad ended last night with the arrest of seventy men, the seizure of thousands of lottery tickets and equipment and the confiscation of a large amount of booting liquor.

The first place raided was a barn in the rear of a junk yard at Twenty-fifth street and Santa Fe avenue. There they found a lottery, conducted by three Chinese in full progress. More than thirty men were in the place. They all scurried to the door and windows, the Chinese making their escape, but the others being rounded up and placed in custody on charges of frequenting a lottery.

CHINESE CAPTURED
The officers remained in the barn for some time, arresting all who entered. At a later hour the three escaped Chinese were captured and thirty-one other men who had walked into the place at varying intervals were arrested on charges of frequenting a lottery.

SHIP BESET BY BRAWLS AND STORM

Arrives in Port Where Battle Royal Climaxes Nerve-racking Trip

Capt. Walter Beckwith, brassy skipper of the 12,000-ton freighter Victorious, heaved several good-sized and well-earned sighs of relief when he docked his ship at the local port yesterday. She was in thirty-three days of continuous storms and gales in crossing the Pacific from Manila; in lieu of the paint that she had knocked off her sides and decks there was rust from stem to stern and No. 1 hold had been stove in—but her $1,000,000 cargo was safe.

To make a nerve-racking voyage more so, the Victorious was under an interesting succession of international imbroglios among her crew. Fights in the galley, the fire-room and in the forecastle among the Spaniards, Filipinos, Greeks and Porto Ricans were part of the daily round, according to her officers. The bones of contention was the degree of Americanism each man possessed.

The climax, however, did not fall until after the Victorious was safely at anchor in Alhambra harbor yesterday. One Spanish quartermaster, John Serra, and three Spaniards, Jose Pallas, Antonio Fernandez and Gabriel Gomez, decided the government service at this time was not one of things that it should be and proceeded to state their views in loud and raucous tones.

Dernardo Benson, Filipino-born seaman, but whose heart and ideas are thoroughly American, took the issue with the quartermaster and proceeded to give them a beating—bone-handed. But a Benson, cut, bruised, bleeding and his clothing in shreds, slipped ashore and hurried to the harbor police station.

The four men arrested by Police men Hache and Williamson and lodged in the port jail to await trial. The Victorious sails for New York this morning.

The giant freighter, operated in the trans-Pacific service of the Tampa Inter-Ocean Steamship Company, has one of the most valuable cargoes ever arriving at the port from the Orient, her 12,000 tons putting her down to the Bilimark mark. She put in at Bangkok, Siam, on the homeward trip to load 25,000 bags of rice and in addition has 6757 tons of sugar from the Philippines, 2400 tons of general oriental freight and 565 tons of vegetable oil from Manila.

WILSHIRE PLAN IS DEALT BLOW

Track Depression Termed "Out of Question"

Commissioner Holds Cost to be Excessive

Says Viaduct Over Street is More Logical

Plans of the City Council to bring about the depression of the Pacific Electric tracks under Wilshire Boulevard near Carthay Center at some future time were declared to be "out of the question" by State Railroad Commissioner Whitley yesterday.

The statement was made at a hearing before the Commissioner on the application of the city for an order requiring the Pacific Electric temporarily to lower its tracks to the level of the boulevard and at which future plans for the crossing were discussed.

It was said at the hearing that the City Council is seeking the temporary order as a safety measure until the Pacific Electric viaduct can be completed whereby the Pacific Electric will be required to depress its rails under the street.

In connection with what future action may be taken Commissioner Whitley declared that the extension of lowering the tracks below the surface of the street was "practically prohibitive of the move."

It would be a most logical suggestion, he said, either to carry the rails over the boulevard by means of an elevated viaduct or depress the tracks under the street, while an open cut under the highway would call for an expenditure approximating $1,047,000. The cost of lowering the tracks to street level as asked in the application approximated $15,000, he said.

It was the advice of Mr. Pontius that his company should be expected to lower the rails to grade if the final order of bridging or submerging the tracks was expected to be deferred for a number of years. If action is expected within a reasonable time he declared that the work should be done at once, at the expense of leveling the tracks would be entirely wasted.

Incorporated in the city's petition is an application asking that the Pacific Electric tracks be lowered to grade in Carthay Center and that at least one grade crossing be established within that area.

It was said at the hearing that the J. H. McCarthy Company would bear the expense of this work.

BLAME FOR WRECK PUT UPON CREW

Handlers of Engine Are Accused, But Leniency is Asked by Inquirers

Illustration on Fiction Page

The crew on the freight engine that "sideswiped" the Southern Pacific Shore Line Limited as the latter was proceeding inbound slowly through the yards near San Fernando Boulevard early yesterday was held responsible for the accident by an official board of inquiry, it was announced last night.

No one was injured in the wreck. The accident occurred when the freight engine was driven too close to the main-line track as the limited was passing. Passengers on the limited were shaken up and six of the passenger cars were damaged slightly.

The engineer of the freight engine is said to have testified before the board that he could not see the signal lights ahead and was leaving them to his fireman.

Is Your Back Giving Out?

ARE you lame every morning, tired all day; tortured with throbbing backache and sharp stabs of pain? Do you feel weak, nervous and dispirited—utterly worn out and miserable? Then why not look to your kidneys, as so many Los Angeles folks have done? The kidneys, you know, are the blood-filters. Well kidneys do their work thoroughly. But weak, sluggish kidneys allow poisons to accumulate in the system and upset the whole bodily machinery. Then is apt to come backache, rheumatic twinges, headaches, dizziness and annoying kidney irregularities. One feels constantly tired, lame and aching; nervous, irritable and depressed. Don't wait! Help your weakened kidneys with a stimulant diuretic. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have helped thousands. Are recommended by many Los Angeles people. Ask your neighbor!

Read How These Los Angeles Folks Found Relief

G. B. McCracken, machinist, 1570 E. 33rd St., says: "I am on my feet eleven and twelve hours a day and every day a cold which settles in my kidneys, it wasn't long before these organs were in a poor shape. My back was painful and twinges cut across my kidneys. The kidney secretions passed too often and it broke my rest. Different medicines did me no good. Doan's Pills took the pains and aches from my back and strengthened my kidneys."

MRS. A. ALVARADO, 1308 Mission Road, says: "My kidneys were in a bad fix. I couldn't rest at night and got up mornings with such severe pains in the small of my back I could hardly move. I had nervous, dizzy spells and my eyes were puffed and circled. My kidneys acted irregularly. I used four boxes of Doan's Pills and they cured me."

(Statement given October 9, 1919.) On January 15, 1923, Mrs. Alvarado said: "The cure Doan's Pills made has stood the test of time."

Every Druggist has Doan's, 60c a box.
